Conditions:

For all practical casting session's eye protections must be worn (if you have your own spectacles or sunglasses please bring them). For the outdoor casting sessions a broad brimmed hat and blockout is advisable; in cold weather, warm and waterproof clothing is recommended. All equipment is supplied on a replace if broken basis. Trips must be paid in full 30 days prior to trip departure date.

Cancellations:

Casting with graphite rods is dangerous during electrical storms, if such weather conditions arise the casting session will be cancelled. If John Coles' Fly Fishing School (JCFFS) does not get the minimum number of people to run a course, you will be notified as soon as possible. In such circumstances, you will have the option of transferring to another course or a full refund of monies will be paid. If it is necessary to cancel your workshop you must notify the JCFFS immediately in writing. Less than one weeks notice will result in 50% charge of course fee, and a fee of 25% of course costs will be charged for cancellations from 30 to 7 days before course, unless you transfer to another course of the same type. If it is necessary to cancel less than 1 week before your trip, 75% of trip cost will be charged, 30-7 days will result in a 50% of trip cost charge.
